Batiscafo It is a wine with 4 months of ageing in French oak barrels that represents Garnacha at its maximum splendor. A fruity, floral wine, very fresh and easy to drink producing the pleasant sensation of a fruit explosion in the mouth.

Wine made with 100% Garnacha grapes which come mainly from old vineyards with low yields, located in the hills and slopes of the Ateca mountains and the bordering villages at 700-1000 meters of altitude. They were planted mainly in soils of metamorphic rocks, especially slates and clayey gravels.

Tasting notes:

Appearance: Vivid color, ripe pillory with garnet edge and bright tear.

Nose: Intense nose with predominance of ripe fruits such as raspberries or currants, with a mineral background and spicy aromas

Palate: Powerful and full mouth with a fresh and fruity character, but tasty and complex, mineral, with remarkable mouth finish where fruit aromas and spices again appear in retronasal.

Pairing: Ideal to pair with meat stews, vegetables, rice, mushrooms, sausages, roast food, cheese of short and medium curing, white and red meats in sauce or grilled.
